

requests: Fulfil now, O Lord, the desires and petitions of Thy servants, as may be most expedient for them; granting us in this world knowledge of Thy truth, and in the world to come life everlasting. Amen.

During the singing of the Hymn the Congregation will follow the Choir to the Memorial Cross.

Hymn 428.

V. Our help standeth in the Name of the Lord.

R. Who hath made heaven and earth.

V. Blessed be the Name of the Lord.

R. From henceforth, even for ever.

V. The Lord be with you.

R. And with thy spirit.

ALMIGHTY God, we humbly beseech Thee to accept the oblations of Thy people and sanctify this offering to the memory of those who gave their lives for their country's honour and freedom. Grant that we who enjoy such great blessings through their sacrifice may henceforth by our lives glorify Thy name, and finally by Thy mercy attain to everlasting life. Amen.

HERE FOLLOWS THE UNVEILING OF THE MEMORIAL CROSS.

ALMIGHTY God, with whom do live the spirits of them that depart hence in the Lord, accept our thanks, and praise for all Thy servants who have departed this life in Thy faith and fear, and, of Thy mercy and goodness, grant that we may continue in their holy fellowship, and, following their good example, may with them attain to the resurrection of the just: through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

OALMIGHTY God, who hast knit together thine elect in one communion and fellowship, in the mystical body of Thy Son, Christ our Lord; Grant us grace so to follow Thy blessed Saints in all virtuous and godly living that we may come to those unspeakable joys which Thou hast prepared for them that unfeignedly love Thee; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Blessing.

"Their Name Liveth for Evermore."

Hymn 274.

The Memorial of the Dead.

LET us give thanks to GOD for the memory and example of all those who, from this Parish, have laid down their lives for their country.

The Congregation is requested to remain standing during the reading of

THE NAMES OF THOSE WHO HAVE FALLEN IN THE WAR.

Then shall be said :

THE souls of the righteous are in the hand of GOD, and there shall no torment touch them. Wisdom iii. 1.

GREATER love hath no man than this, that a man lay down his life for his friends. S. John xv. 13.

The Lesson.

REV. xxi. 1-7.

Psalm XLVI.

Let us pray.

OUR Father, which art in Heaven, Hallowed be Thy Name. Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done, in earth, As it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive them that trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation; But deliver us from evil; For thine is the kingdom, The power, and the glory, For ever and ever. Amen.

ALMIGHTY God, we commend to Thy loving kindness the souls of Thy servants, who have given their lives to defend us. Accept, O Lord, the offering of their self-sacrifice, and grant to all Thy faithful servants a place of refreshment and peace, where the light of Thy countenance shines for ever, and where all tears are wiped away: through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

SON of God, our Captain of salvation, who hast suffered to the utmost human grief and anguish: we thank Thee for the faithful lives and glorious deaths of all Thy soldiers and servants, sons of consolation, who following Thee have lifted up the standard of courage and patience, to the comfort of other sufferers: that both they and we who follow after might learn how to endure unto the end: through the power of the Holy Spirit. Amen.

ALMIGHTY God, Father of all mercies, we thine unworthy servants do give Thee most humble and hearty thanks for all the goodness and loving-kindness to us, and to all men; we bless Thee for our creation, preservation, and all the blessings of this life; but above all, for Thine inestimable love in the redemption of the world by our Lord Jesus Christ; for the means of grace, and for the hope of glory. And, we beseech Thee, give us that due sense of all Thy mercies, that our hearts may be unfeignedly thankful, and that we shew forth Thy praise, not only with our lips, but in our lives; by giving up ourselves to Thy service, and by walking before Thee in holiness and righteousness all our days; through Jesus Christ our Lord, to whom with Thee and the Holy Ghost be all honour and glory, world without end. Amen.

ALMIGHTY God, who hast given us grace at this time with one accord to make our common supplications unto Thee; and dost promise, that when two or three are gathered together in Thy name Thou wilt grant their
