

Caldy,
Patrixbourne Road,
Bridge.
22nd October 1966.

Dear Mr. Williamson,

Patrixbourne Church Pamphlet.

In accordance with your request, authority was duly given at last night's meeting of the P.C.C. for you to obtain another 1,000 copies of the above pamphlet.

Bridge Church Pamphlet.

I was instructed to send you the enclosed draft from Alan Chadwick, and to ask you to find out from Mr. Pinhorn if he wished to add to it or amend it in any way. I don't know what your views will be, but it seems to me to be just what we want, as it stands. It doesn't appear

11
even have been acknowledged, but perhaps you could put that right some time!

It was a pretty quiet meeting as the stalwarts were thin on the ground - to you, Th. Potter, Jack Kelsey, Th. Turpin, Colonel Irvine.

The Christmas Market is to be on 15th December (if the Hall is available) and the next meeting is fixed for the previous Wednesday, 7th December, at Bridge School.

Yours sincerely,
Cicely W. Barker