Dear Baron Perry,

The brief holiday in the Garden of England is now over and we are once again in our own back garden.

My wife and I would like to offer our sincerest thanks for your help last Saturday in our quest of the Baron de Montesquieu.
It was indeed most kind of you to receive us and to offer all the facilities available.

I have written to Mr Hoare and to the Beoney Institute as you suggested. I will keep you informed of progress and in due course I will send you copies of the photographs.

We were very much taken by your little church at Patricdowne which truly merits a visit. Happily we saw it in a true Easter setting with sunshine & flowers.

We are sorry that we were unable to meet your wife, but perhaps this will be possible on a future visit. I must now quickly write to the Baron to give him the latest news and to tell him of your kind reception.

Yours sincerely

P. F. S. Bandwidth
