Dear Mr. Nickless,

We are sorry not to have written to you sooner, but we have been so hard pressed.

Byron's daughter was Ada, who subsequently became Countess of Lovelace. We are passing your letter on to Mrs Doris Langley Moore, who is a great authority on Byron and may be able to help you.

We enclose a copy of the Journal. Should you wish to keep the Journal, but not join the Society, could you kindly let us have £3.00. The annual subscription is £5.00 which includes a copy of the Journal.

We look forward to hearing from you.

Yours sincerely
Mary Melville
(Assistant to Hon. Director)
