Dear Mr Williamson:

Many, many thanks for sending me the volume of Canterbury records. Are you sure you don't want it back? If you don't, I would obviously love to have it. Let's call it a loan - if you ever want me to return it, just let me know.

Give my love to Epernay, and in particular to Chouilly. Chouilly is now so much attached to Epernay that you'll probably think you're in Epernay when in fact you're still in Chouilly: rather like ~~Chelsea~~ Chelsea and Fulham. At all events, Chouilly was where we came from. If you do find yourself in Chouilly, there's a house with a weathercock on the roof. This weathercock is reputed to have been rescued from our house after the fire. Blow it a kiss from me.

Well, I hope we meet again one day. If you are ever foolish enough to come to London, our telephone is 286 5415. Drinks will be made available,

Yours sincerely,
