CANTERBURY CATHEDRAL ARCHIVES & LIBRARY

CANTERBURY CATHEDRAL ARCHIVES

The Archives contain records and manuscripts dating from 742 for the Dean and Chapter of Canterbury, the Diocese of Canterbury, the City of Canterbury, and parochial records for the archdeaconary of Canterbury, as well as several small private collections. A partnership between Kent County Council and the Dean and Chapter of Canterbury administers the Archives, which are part of the Kent Archives Service.

OPENING HOURS

The searchroom is open to the general public:

MONDAY - WEDNESDAY 9.30 am - 4.30 pm

Classes and group visits can be arranged by appointment on Thursdays and Fridays. The office will be closed to the public on Saturdays, Sundays, public holidays, and other times by prior arrangement.

REGISTRATION & BOOKING

The office participates in the County Archive Research Network scheme. Access to the searchroom will be allowed on production of a reader's ticket. This can be issued on the day of the visit on production of suitable identification, giving name and address, and two passport sized photographs. It is necessary to reserve a desk prior to visiting the office.

CANTERBURY CATHEDRAL LIBRARY

The Library contains books and pamphlets dating from the beginning of printing in the fifteenth century to the present day. The main collection consists of: 13,000 items printed before 1801; 16,000 printed 1801-1900; and 15,000 twentieth century titles. In addition, the Library houses about 3,500 books from the beginning of printing to the mid-nineteenth century which form the Mendham collection deposited by the Law Society of London. The Printed Books are administered by the Dean and Chapter of Canterbury in close association with the University of Kent at Canterbury.

OPENING HOURS

The Library is normally open:

MONDAY - FRIDAY 9.30 am - 4.30 pm

BOOKING

Please make an appointment to visit the Library. We only have a small staff and it is possible we may not be able to accommodate you if you do not give us advance notice. Please bring some form of identification with you. Undergraduates should bring a letter of introduction from their tutor.
