Dear Maurice,

Many thanks for returning the form.

As you already have an image we can issue a new license entirely free of charge. Please find it attached. You will just need to return a signed copy for the rights to come into effect.

With best wishes,

Louisa

Dear Louisa,

Thank you for the prompt reply. I hope I have attached the filled-up form (as far as I can interpret it) and not simply returned the blank! Attached also is a scan of the picture, since I have no reference number beyond the Schellin(c)ks attribution. I hope this is satisfactory. I do not know how to insert it into the form itself.

Best wishes,
Maurice Raraty

Dear Dr Raraty,
Hello again, and thank you very much for your enquiry below.
I can't foresee a problem with your request at this stage – however, I will need you to complete and return the attached rights form. I will be able to advise further with regard to the fees and the license by return.
I look forward to hearing from you in due course.
With best wishes,
Louisa

Hello,

In 2007 Bridge & District History Society issued a small booklet "A Brief Historical Tour of The Village of Bridge and its environs" which included a drawing from the Courtauld collection, illustrating the village street as seen in 1661 by Willem Schellinks. A copy was donated to you at the time. This edition has since been exhausted, and we propose to issue an updated and slightly enlarged version, to again include this picture (unchanged). We have, I regret to say, mislaid the original licence, but I note from the terms and conditions which we still have, that application must be made to you again, for permission to reproduce this image in any re-issue.

I'd be grateful to be informed of what further necessary steps may be required to obtain this permission.
Thank you.

Maurice M Raraty

Hi Maurice,

Thanks for your email. Yes I did receive your form, but finance have not sent the invoice out yet. It should be heading to you in the next couple of days.

In the meantime please go ahead with using the image, as they signature on the form is enough for us to allow you to proceed. I hope that the booklet turns out well.

Thanks and sorry for the delay.

Dear Craig,

I hope you have received the attached form, sent by email on April 29th. As we are anxious to proceed with publication, we would be glad to know when we may expect the invoice for permission to publish.

I might mention that we do already have a copy of the high quality card illustrating the Rowlandson picture, issued by (and purchased from) Canterbury Museums in 1999, from which the printer could take a copy.

Many thanks,

Maurice

Dear Mr Raraty,

Thank you for your enquiry about the Rowlandson watercolour. We have various rates for the use of image from the collection and yours would qualify for the local history rate of £18 + VAT. If you are happy with that amount please let me know and I will send you out a copyright form to sign and we can then get the image to you.

Thanks

Craig

Hello,

In 2007 the Bridge & District History Society issued an illustrated booklet, "A Brief Historical Tour of the Village of Bridge and its Environs". That edition is now exhausted, and we are in process of preparing a second, revised and enhanced edition.

We would like to include this time a reproduction of Thomas Rowlandson's watercolour of Canterbury Races, now in the Beaney's collections. I'd be grateful if you would confirm the conditions under which it may be possible to do so.

Many thanks.
