BEKESBOURNE (or Beakesbourne) is a small parish on the Little Stour, with a station on the Southern railway, 3 miles east-south-east from Canterbury and 59 from London by road and 64½ by railway, in the Canterbury division of the county, lathe of St. Augustine. hundred and union of Bridge, petty sessional division and county court district of Canterbury, rural deanery of East Bridge and archdeaconry and diocese of Canterbury; it is also partly in the city and county of the city of Canterbury. This parish is a member of the Cinque port of Hastings and was formerly a borough. The church of St. Peter is in the Norman, Early English and later styles, and has a tower containing 5 bells, the gift of Miss Gipps: in the church are memorials to the families of Palmer, Hales, Fagge, Eden and Gardner and various memorial windows; the church was restored in 1882-8, and has 150 sittings. In the centre of the new churchyard is a memorial to the 12 parishioners who fell in the Great War, 1914-18; the cost was defrayed by public subscription. The register dates from the year 1558. The living is a vicarage, net income £317, with residence, in the gift of the Archbishop of Canterbury, and held since 1928 by the Rev. Alfred Amoz Fletcher Lamplugh M.A. of St. John's College, Cambridge. In this parish is the Sanatorium of the Bridge Rural District Council. The Old Palace, an ancient house, was formerly a country residence of the Archbishops of Canterbury. The Ecclesiastical Commissioners and the Marquis Conyngham are the principal landowners. The soil is gravel and chalk; subsoil, chalk. The chief crops are wheat, barley, oats and hops. The area is 1,091 acres; the population in 1921 was 332 in the civil and 342 in the ecclesiastical parish.

BIRLING is a parish and village, at the foot of the chalk hills, 2 miles north-east from Malling station on the Swanley Junction and Maidstone section of the Southern railway, 2 south-west from Snodland station on the North Kent line, 8 south-west from Rochester and 7 north-west from Maidstone, in the Sevenoaks division of the county, Aylesford lathe, Larkfield hundred, petty sessional division and union of Malling, county court district of Maidstone, rural deanery of Malling, archdeaconry of Tonbridge and diocese of Rochester. Birling is watered by a small stream rising near Birling Place, and flowing into the Medway. The church of All Saints is a building of Kentish rag, principally Perpendicular in style, and has a tower containing a clock and 8 bells, and several stained windows, as well as memorials of the Nevill family: the church affords upwards of 400 sittings. The register dates from the year 1558. The living is a vicarage, net yearly value £363, including residence, in the gift of the Marquess of Abergavenny, and held since 1927 by the Rev. Clifford Haworth Daniel M.A. of Trinity College, Cambridge. Christ Church, LOWER BIRLING, was formed into a separate ecclesiastical parish in January, 1911. The church, erected in 1893, is in the Early English style, and has 280 sittings. The site and burial ground were given by Rev. Canon Goulson M.A. of Guildford. The living is a vicarage, net yearly value £360, with residence, in the gift of trustees, and held since 1927 by the Rev. Harold James Howden M.A. of Clare College, Cambridge. The exors. of Percy Llewelyn Nevill esq. who are lords of the manor, and the Marquess of Abergavenny are the principal landowners. The soil is various, sand, clay and gravel; subsoil, stone and gravel. The area is 1,917 acres of land, a large proportion of which is devoted to the cultivation of fruit and hops. The area of the civil parish is 1,797 acres of land and 3 of water; the population in 1921 was 922 in the civil and 405 in the ecclesiastical parish.

BISHOPSBOURNE is a parish on a feeder of the Stour, on the entrance of the Barham Downs, and about half a mile from the Dover road, with a station on the Elham Valley line of the Southern railway, and 2½ miles south from Bekesbourne station on the Chatham and Dover section of that railway, and 4 miles south-east from Canterbury, in the Canterbury division of the county, lathe of St. Augustine, Kinghamford hundred, petty sessional division of Wingham, union of Bridge, county court district of Canterbury, rural deanery of East Bridge, and archdeaconry and diocese of Canterbury. The Nailbourne, a feeder of the Stour, which runs through the parish, rising in the hills above Folkestone, is an intermittent stream, flowing for a few months periodically about every five to seven years, but from 1910 it has been flowing regularly. The church of St. Mary is of flint, in the Early English and later styles, and has a tower containing 4 bells: there is some stained glass, and in the chancel a mural monument with bust, erected in 1632 by Sir W. Cooper kt. to Richard Hooker M.A. (commonly known as "the learned and judicious Hooker"), author of the celebrated "Ecclesiastical Polity," and some time fellow of Corpus Christi College, Oxford; he was rector of Bishopsbourne from 1595 till his death, Nov. 2nd, 1600: in 1890 a memorial window to Hooker was erected, and a lych gate was erected to his memory in 1911: the church was repaired and re-seated in 1872, at a cost of £1,600: there are 215 sittings. The register of baptisms and marriages dates from 1558; burials from 1571. The living is a rectory, net yearly value £505, with residence, in the gift of the Archbishop of Canterbury, and held since 1923 by the Rev. Walter Henry Trelawny Ashton-Gwatkin M.A. of King's College, Cambridge; it was formerly united to Barham, but was separated from it in 1846 by Order in Council. In the rectory garden there is a remarkable yew hedge, said by some to have been planted by Hooker. There is a village hall, erected in 1924, seating 180 persons; it has a porch, erected in 1926, with a memorial panel added in 1928, in memory of the writer, Joseph Conrad, who resided and died here. Bourne Park is the seat and property of Major Sir John Theodore Prestige, who is lord of the manor. Charlton Place, the residence of Mrs. Tattersall, is half a mile south-east, and contains a very fine saloon which was built for George IV. Major Sir John Theodore Prestige, the Marquess Conyngham and the exors. of Major J. C. de V. Tattersall are the principal landowners. In Gorsley Wood are three tumuli, opened in Feb. 1882, and found to contain stone chests, holding human remains. The soil is loamy; subsoil, chalk. The chief crops are wheat, oats, barley and hops. The area is 2,018 acres of land and 5 of water; the population in 1921 was 304. Post & Telephone Call Office (telegrams are dispatched but not delivered). Letters through Canterbury. The nearest M. BRIDGE is a parish and head of a union, giving its name to a rural deanery; it derives its name from its situation in a valley on the Roman and modern road to Dover, at a bridge over a feeder of the Stour, with a station on the Canterbury and Folkestone line of the Southern railway, and is 1½ miles south from Bekebourne station on the same system, and 3 south-east from Canterbury, in the Canterbury division of the county, lathe of St. Augustine, hundred of Bridge and Petham, petty sessional division of St. Augustine's, Canterbury, county court district of Canterbury, rural deanery of East Bridge and archdeaconry and diocese of Canterbury. The village is lighted with gas by a local limited company. The church of St. Peter is of flint, in the Norman style, with some additions of the Early English period, and has a tower with spire, containing a clock and 4 bells: the windows are stained; within a recess is a recumbent effigy of a man in robes, in low relief: the church was repaired and partly rebuilt about 1860, and affords 350 sittings, 80 being free. The register dates from the year 1565. The living is a vicarage, annexed to the vicarage of Patricxbourne, joint net yearly value £330, with 38 acres of glebe and residence, in the gift of the Marquess Conyngham, and held since 1897 by the Rev. Hubert Knight M.A. of Christ's College, Cambridge, who resides at Patricxbourne. A war memorial was erected in 1920 by public subscription in the north-east of the churchyard, to the memory of 13 men of the parish who fell in the Great War, 1914-18. The Wesleyan chapel, built in 1894, is of corrugated iron and wood, and seats 150 persons. The principal landowners are the Marquess Conyngham, who is lord of the manor, Earl Sondes and Major Sir John Theodore Prestige. The soil is chalky; subsoil, chalk. The chief crops are wheat, barley, oats and hops. The area is 1,171 acres; the population in 1921 was 699.

BROADSTAIRS with ST. PETER'S.

BROADSTAIRS, anciently called "Bradstow," is a pleasant little town and watering place, with a station on the South Eastern section of the Southern railway,  $2\frac{1}{2}$  miles north from Ramsgate, 77 from London and  $3\frac{1}{2}$  south-east from Margate, situated on the eastern coast of the Isle of Thanet, in the rural deanery of Thanet and archdeaconry and diocese of Canterbury; it was from 1879 under a Local Board, but is now governed under the Local Government Act, 1894 (56 and 57 Vict. c. 73), by a District Council of twelve members. In pursuance of an Order of the County Council, made in 1894, the name of the Urban District was altered to Broadstairs and St. Peter's, and now comprises four wards—Central, Pierremont, Kingsgate and St. Peter's. The modern extension of the town of Broadstairs has a fine promenade on the summit of low cliffs, but in the older part the streets are narrow and tortuous. Both Broadstairs and St. Peter's are lighted with gas and by electricity by a company. Water is supplied by the Urban District Council; the works were originally erected in 1859, and extended in 1876, 1903 and 1907; in 1925 the pumping and storage plant was reorganised and a system of water softening introduced; the water is obtained from adits in the chalk extending about  $1\frac{1}{2}$  miles inland. The ecclesiastical parish was formed out of St. Peter's on Sept. 27, 1850. The parish church of the Holy Trinity is an enlargement of a small church originally built in 1829: it is of flint stone in the Romanesque style, consisting of an unusually wide nave with aisles: there are 818 sittings. The register of baptisms dates from the year 1850. The living was declared a rectory Dec. 6, 1867, net yearly value £440, with residence, built in 1870, in the gift of the vicar of St. Peter's, and held since 1909 by the Rev. Lewis Lanning Edwards M.A. of Trinity College, Dublin, and rural dean. The Roman Catholic church, St. Peter's Park road, is dedicated to Our Lady Star of the Sea. Christ Church, Free Church of England, is in Osborne road. The Baptist chapel, in High street, founded in 1790, was restored in 1909, and seats 250 persons. The Baptist chapel, in Queen's road, built in 1908 at a cost of £2,000, is an edifice of brick with stone dressings, in the Gothic style, from designs by Mr. E. E. Moody, architect: it includes a clock tower, and will seat about 450 persons: the old chapel alongside, built in 1897, is now used as a Sunday school. There is also a Congregational chapel, erected in 1876, with 350 sittings; a Wesleyan Methodist chapel and a preaching room belonging to the Brethren. Bleak House, standing in a prominent position on the cliff, is stated to be associated with the novel, "Bleak House," of Charles Dickens. There is a bathing establishment and libraries, as well as marine villas and many boarding houses, and several good hotels, including the Grand and the Royal Albion. The Public Library, in the Broadway, comprises reading room and lending department, and contains about 6,000 volumes. York gate, an ancient arch of flint-work, once forming part of the defences of the place, was built by George Cullmer about 1540, and repaired in 1795 by Sir John Henniker bart.; the portcullis and gates have disappeared; near it are the remains of a chapel dedicated to Our Lady of Bradstow and once containing an image held in great veneration by mariners, who were wont to salute it in passing by lowering their sails. The area of the Urban District, which includes the parish of St. Peter Extra, is 3,303 acres; the population in 1921 was 15,471. The population of the Urban District wards in 1921 was—Central, 4,565; Kingsgate, 2,878; Pierremont, 4,328, and St. Peter's, 3,700. The population of Holy Trinity ecclesiastical parish in 1921 was 8,419.

PATRIXBOURNE (or Patricksbourne) is a parish and village, pleasantly situated in healthy country, the Lesser Stour running through the village, which is three-quarters of a mile from the road from Canterbury to Ashford, half a mile south from the Bekesbourne station on the Faversham and Dover section of the Southern railway, and 3 miles south-east from Canterbury; it is in the Canterbury division of the county, lathe of St. Augustine, hundred of Bridge and Petham, union of Bridge, petty sessional division of Horne, county court district of Canterbury, rural deanery of East Bridge, archdeaconry and diocese of Canterbury. The church of St. Mary, a fine structure of the Norman period, is of flint with stone dressings, and has a tower with spire containing a clock and 3 bells: there are some stained windows and monuments to the Conyngnam family: the church has 180 sittings. At the east end of the churchyard is a memorial, erected by public subscription, to six men connected with this parish who fell in the Great War, 1914-18. The register of baptisms and burials dates from the year 1556; marriages from 1560. The living is a vicarage, with that of Bridge annexed, joint net yearly value £330, with 33 acres of glebe and residence, in the gift of the Marquess Conyngnam, and held since 1897 by the Rev. Hubert Knight M.A. of Christ's College, Cambridge. Bifrons, the property of the Marquess Conyngnam, who is lord of the manor, lay impropiator and chief landowner, is now occupied by Col. Hon. Milo George Talbot C.B.: it is a handsome mansion of stone, standing in a finely-timbered park of 230 acres. Highland Court, the seat of Walter Kennedy Wigham esq. is a modern mansion of Portland stone, having porticos and columns with carved capitals. The soil is loam; subsoil, chalk and gravel. The chief crops are hops and wheat. The area is 1,559 acres; the population of the civil parish in 1921 was 232, and of the ecclesiastical parish (with Bridge), 949.
