BRIDGE, so named from its situation in a valley on the Dover road at a bridge over a feeder of the Stour, is a parish in the rural district of Bridge-Blean, with a station on the Canterbury and Folkestone line of the Southern railway, and is 1½ miles south from Bekesbourne station on the same system, and 3 south-east from Canterbury, in the Canterbury division of the county, lathe of St. Augustine, hundred of Bridge and Petham, petty sessional division of St. Augustine's. Canterbury, county court district of Canterbury, rural deanery of East Bridge and archdeaconry and diocese of Canterbury. Gas and electricity are available. Water is supplied by the Margate Corporation. The church of St. Peter is of flint, in the Norman style, with some additions of the Early English period, and has a tower with spire, containing a clock and 4 bells: the windows are stained: within a recess is a recumbent effigy of a man in robes, in low relief: the church was repaired and partly rebuilt about 1860, and affords 350 sittings. The register dates from the year 1565. The living is a vicarage, annexed to the vicarage of Patricxbourne, joint net yearly value £356, with 33 acres of glebe and residence, in the gift of the Marquess Conyngham, and held since 1897 by the Rev. Hubert Knight M.A. of Christ's College, Cambridge, who resides at Patricxbourne. In 1920 a cross was erected in the north-east of the churchyard in memory of 13 men of the parish who fell in the Great War, 1914-18. The Methodist church, built in 1894, is of corrugated iron and wood, and seats 150 persons. The principal land-owners are the Marquess Conyngham, who is lord of the manor, and Earl Sondes. The soil is chalky; subsoil, chalk. The chief crops are wheat, barley, oats and hops; the area is 1,171 acres; the population in 1921 was 699, and in 1931, 713.
