

Bungalow has fine grounds

ASHENDENS are offering a magnificent detached bungalow in well-cared for grounds of about an acre at Beech Hill, Bridge.

The Plat is about 30 years old and is built of brick under a tiled roof with ragstone chimneys.

There is outline planning permission for another home in the grounds and offers in the region of $150,000 are being invited.

There are three bedrooms, lounge, kitchen, hall, separate lavatory, gas central heating, a garage and store rooms.

The rooms are of a good size, some with double aspect windows looking over the gardens.

The well-kept garden is mostly lawn, with beech hedges, herbaceous plants, shrubs, borders and rockeries. There are also some fine trees, including whitebeam, walnut and a Judas tree.

The Plat, at Beech Hill, Bridge. Offers in the region of $150,000 are invited.