"The Copper Case - The Prisoner at Bow Street"

Appeared before Mr. Marsham, formerly to justify a removal. 10.45 am. yesterday

Hawley Harvey Copper + Ethel Clara Le Neve Case taken at Bow St was for the public convenience that was. Bow St + Hillman

Rode through the courts with an escort of mounted police and with the Riot Act in his pocket on "Black Sunday" during the Trafalgar Square Riots - 1886.
One of the most gentle & patient men who ever sat in a police court. Never ruffled, never raised his voice - anger.

Mr Travers Humphreys, who represents me all asked the magistrate to adjourn the case for 8 days after he had heard evidence as to the prisoners' arrest and the court was accordingly adjourned
