

I
/

from: the Reminiscences & recollections of Captain Gordon by anecdotal of the Camp Cook & Society 1810-60

His intimate companions after the trial of Queen Caroline were Lord Cochrane & his son Benjamin, Lord Glenelg & his wife
& his wife. The dinner by the artistic product of the famous gastronomic savant Maitre, then he became G-T-V is clear with piece in these two men at the banquet except that with the limit & favour of the table was introduced the harshness of C. whose wit was not always to the estimation of his guests & surpassed that of any other of his friends male or female.

Count at Windsor Domestic History Christopher Hibbert

II
/

Lady Curzon d 1861

Lord " " 1766-1832.

harsh & sentimental of falling in love.

Both over 50 for for a very, rules for letters of 5 grown up children.
his habit of high Tory friend of Duke of W. thought it was all 'very ridiculous & thoroughly idiotic.

June 1821. Ball K. had a complete foot of mail received by lady Curzon all evening & placed a page outside the door.

He was quite surprised at the degree he was in love. 'She was a angel sent for leaves.

Tete à tete in carriage lasted a day alone with her.

has no sense of shame about her conduct with the king.

All the women paid to her as a Royal mistress.

When lady came to court, husband had a mistress K. wanted to have her Lord Chamberlain as well but P.M. Lord Liverpool refused.

has no of house & lived at end of the house hotel.

one of the sons became. Master of the robes & Sec for Foreign Affairs.
daughter went to dinner & he divided presents with his wife.

son after command of the army in India. Even son Thos married a British girl & was appointed a bishop but Lord Liverpool refused her a Countess of Liverpool. Her happy. Lord to death of acc to P.C. Charles Grey.

down out his other two friends. bodily Langley & Leg & High "belly" & I have been laughing together his children. His wife is a madhouse.
Se ca do without sentiment & se cant do without decaud.

Lady Anne Hamilton £500,000? but her bond situation in the Royal household so they did not have to pay beiges themselves + etc. and then the King's men gave a dinner at Hamilton Place the food was cooked at St James + brought over by Hackney Coach in a lacque specialy made for this purpose.

Major Weds of Treason left Castle.

* I am glad to be a girl to love a Queen. daughter of one of them.