 according to such books, scandal joined with truth was a greater libel than when joined with falsehood; when the third declared he could not agree to either their definitions, nor did he think that the matter could be decided by any law-arguments, for that a libel certainly was CANTERBURY.

Friday evening, between five and six, a fire broke out at Mr. Henry Watsons, Weaver, at Bridge, which intirely consumed his workshop, with an adjacent building, in which were stowed 150 pipes of hop-bagging, but by the timely assistanc of the neighbouring inhabitants, the hopbagging was saved from the flames. This unhappy accident was occasioned by the smouldring fire to some loose pieces of tow in a room.
