

PROROGATION OF PARLIAMENT.

It seems certain that the King will prorogue the Parliament to-morrow in person. Two Bills have been reserved for that day, viz: the Exchequer Bills Bill, to enable the Speaker of the House of Commons to make a speech, and the Restored Peerages Bill, to enable his Majesty as it were from his own mouth to confer this act of Grace. — It is said that the Earl Marshal will then take the oaths from which he is not exempted.

On SUNDAY NEXT, a SERMON will be preached at the Cathedral, by the Rev. Dr. MARLOW, for the BENEFIT of the CHARITY SCHOOLS, in this City.

Yesterday the East Kent Yeomanry Cavalry, commanded by Colonel Garrett, had a grand field day on Barham Downs; and were inspected by Major Phillips, of the 15th Hussars, who expressed himself in the handsomest terms of commendation at the steady and soldier-like appearance of the Corps, and with the precision which they effected the different evolutions. After the inspection, the Corps marched into the park of the Rev. Mr. Hallett, and formed in the front of the mansion, where they were presented with refreshments; the officers were also invited to partake of a dejeuner à la fourchette, on their departure the whole of the Regiment gave three cheers, and from thence marched into Canterbury and dismissed. The whole of the officers, with Major Phillips, and a number of friends sat down to an elegant dinner at the King's Head, provided by Mr. Wildish. The evening was spent with the greatest harmony and conviviality, a number of glees, duets, and songs were sung in most excellent style, by the amateurs of that Corps.

On Monday night the Medway Navigation Bill, the See of Canterbury Leasing Bill, and the Kent Insurance Bill, received the Royal Assent.

We have to announce a benefaction of twenty guineas, paid to the Kent and Canterbury Hospital, by Mrs. Henry Petley, of Ramsgate; and a like benefaction of twenty guineas, paid to the same Institution by Rowland Stephenson, esq. of Lombard-street.

At a Court of Burghmote, held at Guildhall, the on Tuesday last, a Committee of seven was appointed to carry into execution the provisions of the Act which has recently received the Royal Assent, for building a new Corn and Hop Market, in this city, consisting of H. Cooper, esq. Mayor; Aldermen De Lasaux, Friend, and Browne; and Messrs. Powell, W. Sharp, and Pratt, Common-Councilmen. We understand the expence of getting the Bill through Parliament, exceeds £600.

Wednesday evening, George Watts was committed to Bridewell by the Mayor of this city, for getting drunk, neglecting his business, and abusing his employer, Mr. Osmond Saffery. He also committed an assault upon Tapley, the police officer.

On Friday last, Thomas Nicholls, a lad only 12 years of age, was convicted before the Mayor in the penalty of 10s., for having wantonly and mischievously damaged several trees on the Dane John Field, and in default of payment, was committed to the Bridewell of this city for fourteen days. Hamburgh Papers to the 1st inst. also reached town on Wednesday night. They contain no article of interest except the following official contradiction of the report which has made so much noise abroad, that we intended to send Hanoverian troops to Portugal.

Hamburgh, July 23.—Our Official Gazette contains the following article:—"Various public Journals, having of late so frequently spoken of the sending of a corps of Hanoverian troops to Portugal, we think it our duty to remark, for the information of the public, that according to the latest accounts received from the Kingdom of Portugal, the sending of any corps of troops thither is not thought necessary."

Wednesday forenoon were received Lisbon Papers to the 18th ult. but they contain no intelligence of interest. Several vessels had arrived from Rio da Janeiro, and other parts of the Brazil; and one vessel in 120 days from Monte Video, with 400 troops and General Maudo. The Lisbon Gazette of the 17th. contains a long article on the policy of the British Government, which is justly praised for its prudence in preserving the country in peace, when some busy politicians wished to precipitate us in a war for the sake of the imbecile Cortes of Spain, and the partisans of a Government who did not think it worth fighting for.

By the arrival of a Jamaica Mail on Wednesday morning, Papers to the 19th of June, have arrived bringing an account of an insurrectionary movement on the part of the slaves on Argyle Estate, in the parish of Hanover. This intelligence excited considerable alarm among the West India Merchants in the City, and the most extravagant rumours were circulated on Change. One report was, that the Slaves had been joined by five thousand Maroons; now it so happens that there are not more than twelve or fourteen hundred Maroons on the whole island. The affair, which does not appear very serious, is said to have arisen in consequence of the slaves not being allowed Saturday for themselves, as had been promised.

From the Jamaica Courier of the 17th June.

The Ringdove brig, from Luquira, was coming to anchor when the Packet left Barbadoes, and the Ganges, 84, was lying at St. Vincent.

It is said that the Superb, 74, is to come from Barbadoes to this Island, for the purpose of receiving the flag of Vice-Admiral Halsted, when Captain Thomas Forrest will remove into that ship, and Capt. Sir Thomas Staines will take the command of the his, of 50, and the Ganges, 84, Captain E. Brace, C. B. will return to England.

The Jamaica Mail, brings no confirmation of the reported victory of Bolivar. The latest accounts from the General are of the 27th of May, via Panama. In April, his head-quarters were at Truxillo, when he had a force of 19,000 men; and letters from Carthagena, of the 13th May, state, that he had demanded more men and money from his Government, which it was not able to supply to the extent of his demand. Another account, of a later date, represents him as having received reinforcements, and about to commence offensive operations.

By the De Cock, arrived at Antwerp, advices have been received from the Mauritius to the 3d of May. We regret to learn that no doubt was entertained there of the Delight sloop of war, Capt. Hay, having foundered off that island, and that the whole of her crew, with 500 recaptured slaves, had perished. A part of the wreck of the vessel had been picked up at sea.

Yesterday, the Chancellor of the Exchequer came to town, from Charlton, Kent, and after transacting business at the Treasury, returned in the evening.

Monday, being the Anniversary of the Accession of the House of Brunswick to the Throne, the Fishmongers' Company, according to annual custom, gave a grand Dinner to commemorate that event. Among the distinguished individuals present were the Duke of Sussex, the Lord Mayor, Sir James Macintosh, Mr. Bennet, Mr. Lambton, Lord A. Hill, Lord Darnley, the Honorable Agar Ellis, Sir T. Lawrence, W. Williams, Esq. M. P. General Quiroga, the Greek Deputy, General Orlando, and Colonel Riego, the brother of the late Spanish General. General Mina had promised to attend, but was prevented by indisposition. There was also a number of other celebrated Spanish Officers present. Mr. Marjoribanks and Mr. Astell, and a number of other Gentlemen eminent in the commercial world, were present.

Wednesday the despatches for China by the ship Moffatt, were closed at the East India House.

EXPLOSION OF A STEAM-PACKET ON THE MERSEY.—We are greatly concerned to state, that a fatal accident happened on Sunday afternoon, in the Mersey, which has proved disastrous in its consequences. Just after three o'clock in the afternoon, when the Earl of Bridgewater steam-packet, which plies between Liverpool and Ellesmere Port, was leaving the pier head, and but a few minutes after the steam was put on, the boiler suddenly burst, with a tremendous explosion, forced up part of the deck, and otherwise greatly injured the vessel. We are not yet acquainted with the cause of the disaster. It is however, with grief we learn, that eight persons on board were most seriously scalded, two of whom, it is said, are dead.—Chester Courier.

"We learn by the last arrivals from Constantinople that the Turkish fleet was in so very weak a state as to render its operations against the Greeks of little consequence. The Pacha of Egypt, it was also understood, had no inclination, as heretofore stated, of taking an active part in the war, and that he had informed the Porte that he should not interfere unless in the way of mediation.

"Tax Funds.—The money market was crowded at a very early hour this morning, in consequence of an expectation that the prices of the funds would experience a considerable elevation. There has, however, been no material alteration in the old and new 4 per cent. Annuities, but the Long Annuities are rather higher than on Saturday. The October account commences on Thursday next, and it is supposed that there will be scarcely any continuation owing to the great demand for money stock.

We understand several Horses have arrived at Bridge,
for our approaching Races, and many more are expected.
We have great reason to anticipate good sport, as, in addition to what has already been announced, the Officers of the 17th Lancers have subscribed a Stake of £50. to be run for on Friday, besides one or two matches for the same day. Her Royal Highness the Duchess of Kent, with Princess Feodor, are expected to honor the Downs
with their presence.

Saturday the Earl and Countess of Liverpool left Combe Wood for Walmer Castle.

Sir William Curtis is at present enjoying the sea breezes
at Ryde, in the Isle of Wight.

On Tuesday last John Iggulden, esq. was elected Mayor of Deal for the year ensuing.

Harvest commenced in this county on Monday last at Woodchurch: Mr. William Coomber reaped nearly one acre, and would have continued if the weather permitted.
It also commenced in the neighbourhood of this City yesterday.

The Driver sloop, which arrived at Portsmouth last week from the coast of Africa, sailed on Wednesday for Deptford, to be paid off: the Viper sailed on the same day, for Chatham.

The Cato transport, Lieutenant Meredith Agent, has arrived at Port-moath, from Quebec, having on board the 1st battalion of the 60th Regiment, which is intended to be landed at Chatham: she left Quebec the 24th ult.

any measures were promptly taken to stop the payments of the bills. The parcel was from the bank of Messrs. Edmeads and Company, Maidstone, and consisted of the sum of 1,518l. 16s. in cash or different country notes, 4,467l. in draughts payable at sight, and 7,202l. 9s. 6d. bills, in the whole 13,188l. 5s. 6d.

MAIDSTONE FAIR.—Our Fair was on Monday most numerously attended, and the town was literally thronged with visitors, who were highly amused by the novelty of the exhibitions, with all the bustle, being held in a pleasant field between the Barming and London roads, commanding a delightful prospect of the whole town, with a distant view of the adjacent hills. The weather was unusually favourably, giving additional zest to the festivities of the day. There was a tolerably supply of fat and lean Stock, the latter at high prices; and a large supply of Horses, which also fetched high prices. The Hop trade was rather heavy: Bags from 90s. to 105s.; Pockets, 100s. to 115s. The light-fingered gentry began their operations very early, and were but too successful.

SINGULAR INSTANCE OF ANIMAL INSTINCT.—On Wednesday evening, a post chaise and pair belonging to Mr. Wright, of the Ship Hotel, at Dover, left the Fountain Inn, at Canterbury, on its return home; but the post-boy who had been unwell, finding himself chilly, stopped at the Star, in that City, for the purpose of putting on his great coat, and whilst in the act of doing so, the horses, started off; they passed the Gutteridge Gate, at the top of the New Road, which was open, and also several vehicles on the road, without the slightest obstruction, until they arrived at the Turnpike Gate, at Charlton, which being shut, they sprung at it, and having divided it, proceeded through the town, turning the dangerous corner of Bench-street, with as much accuracy as if guided, and took their course down the Rope-walk, in a gallop. On arriving opposite Mr. Latham's Bank, where it is customary to pull up, previous to passing the bridge, across the basin, they slackened their pace; but as soon as they felt the stones, they resumed their speed, until they reached the door-way of the stable yard, where they halted in an exhausted state, having performed the distance of 16 miles in one hour and ten minutes, and notwithstanding the door of one side of the chaise was open, and the steps down, without doing or receiving any damage, through the various intricate turnings of the streets. The rapid speed of the horses and chaise through the town, caused a considerable sensation, and when they reached the stables without the driver, his wife, relative, and others were apprehensive that some serious accident had happened. Mr. Wright immediately dispatched a man and horse off, who fell in with the post-boy at the Halfway House, to which place he had ran from Canterbury, in the hope of overtaking his runaway steeds.

ACCIDENT.—On Saturday evening last, as Mr. Rogers, fruiterer of this city, was proceeding down the hill, near Sarr, on his way to Canterbury, the cart being loaded much behind, the belly-girth broke and the shafts flew up, when the horse proceeding on, got on the off side of the shafts and dragged the cart up a bank, when Mr. R. was precipitated to the ground with great violence, by which he sustained a most se-

41) SMITHFIELD, April 26,
Our market to-day is as follows:—Beef, 2s. 6d. to 3s. 6d.
per score.—Mutton, 3s. 6d. to 4s. 4d. per stone.

The trade was considerably worse on Friday for both Beef and Mutton; but it has rallied a little to-day, though nothing but the very best things reach the top prices of last Monday. The best Scot spayed Heifers have brought 4s. 2d; with this exception, the top price for Beef can not be reckoned at more than 4s. Only a few choicest of unshorn Downs have obtained 4s. 4d; but small make Sheep obtain very little more than 3s. 8d; and the large Sheep are 2d a stone less. Lamb, though in demand, is not maintained last week's prices.

Prices returned by the Clerk of the Market, to wit the effect
—per stone of 8 lbs.
