

A great,
great,
great,
Aunt

339

Sir,

For the past three years I have been compiling a dossier on my great, great, great aunt, Miss Emma Fagg, who was born in Bridge in November, 1825 and died in March, 1913 in her 88th year.

In 1854 she went to the Crimea as a nurse with Florence Nightingale.

She was buried in St Peter's Church (Thanet) and the inscription on her tombstone read, One of a band of noble women who served under Florence Nightingale in The Crimean War.

She spent the last 22 years of her life at a workhouse in Minster.

Is there anyone living in the area that this paper reaches who knows any more about this remarkable lady and who may possibly be related to me!!

I look forward to hearing from you if you do.
