

Nearly 50 are confirmed

It was standing room only at St Vincent's Church, Littlebourne, on Sunday when a joint confirmation service took place.

The Bishop of Dover, the Rt Rev Anthony Tremlett, confirmed 47 candidates. Afterwards, there was a reception for the candidates, families and friends.

The candidates were:

From Littlebourne: Michael Whittaker, John Dickinson, Michael Dixon, Tina and Diane Measday, Lucy Phillipson, Tracey Potter, Lynn Rennells, Alison Sullivan, Elizabeth Carruthers, Amanda Filbeam, Jacqueline Newnham, Mr Antony Whittaker, Mrs Elsie Whittaker, Mr Robert Brown and Mrs Margaret Brown.

From the University: Lynne Barber, Penelope Hoskings, Richard Coates.

Wingham: Margaret Atkins, Deborah and Christopher Berthoud, Alison Brammer, Lesley Curling, Cannon Hawarden, Anthony Hennessy, Simon Oldfield, Wendy Pellett, John Powell, Beverly Smith.

Aylesham: Beverley Bence, Robert Waite.

Bridge: Ian Childs, Anthony Bevan, Simon Giles, Alison Mills, Amanda Buckmaster, Jane Mummery, Alison Jordan, Adrienne Stamp, Julia Gulvin.

Bekesbourne: Thomas Page, Darren Gilham, Alan Terry, Sarah Stamp, Toni Denne.

Wide selection of

EASTER
EGGS

From 20p

Debenhams
Canterbury 62266

h Gazette

POST, THE CANTERBURY PRESS, THE DOVER STANDARD AND THE HYTHE REPORTER

FRIDAY, MARCH 17, 1978

10p

Candidates who were confirmed on Sunday by the Bishop of Dover, the Rt Rev Anthony Tremlett, at St Vincent's Church, Littlebourne. (See story on page 14.)

BEKESBOURNE FANCY DRESS

All dressed up and nowhere to go. Contestants in the fancy dress competition at Bekesbourne's jubilee celebrations on the Recreation Ground on Tuesday.

Hardly Cowes, but good fun all the same. Contestants in the homemade boat race at Bridge on Tuesday watch the entries cross the starting line.

Young fancy dress contestants showed as much imagination as their elders at Bokesbourne.

Where else would you find an Indian squaw rubbing shoulders with a friar but at the fancy dress competition at Bokesbourne?

Interested spectators at the Bokesbourne fancy dress competition.

And they're off, but which is going to be the winner? Spectators at the Bridge boat race watch progress.

Watching the homemade boat race at Bridge.

Over 70 children from Strangers Lane, Canterbury, were given jubilee pens and balloons at their party on Tuesday. It was held in a barn at Cockerling Farm, belonging to Mr R. Ashenden. A street collection paid for flags, decorations and tea, after which the children played games.

Pupils of the Archbishop's School, Canterbury, who raised over £1,200 with a sponsored walk on Friday, with Mrs Eunice Hughes and her guide dog, Erika, who started them off. The children plan to give £500 to the Guide Dogs for the Blind Association and the remainder will go into school amenity funds.