WHO is the mysterious middle-aged man, escorting a dusky beauty, masquerading in New York and environs as the Earl of Mount Charles? 'Not me,' says the real Earl, 31-year-old heir of Marquis Conyngham, 'but I was in America on May 3.' Educated at Harrow, living at Slane Castle, County Meath and happily married to former deb Juliet Kitson with a son and daughter, Henry Mount Charles has only one fear over being impersonated. 'He's not issuing cheques, is he?'
