Art in Bridge

An open exhibition of the work of artists living or working in Bridge

Saturday 20th October 2001

10.00 am to 6.00 pm in the Village Hall, High Street, Bridge

Entrance Free

Come and see the wealth of talent of the artists, including children, in your Village

Refreshments available

Profits to the Village Hall Disabled Access Fund

Invitation to exhibit your work -

The Exhibition is open to everyone living or working in Bridge, to exhibit their work. This includes children and young people, especially those studying Art at school or College. Whether you are professional or a very amateur artist this your opportunity to show your work to the Village.

Only work which is mounted ready to hang on the walls (from chains hooked on to the picture rail) or can pinned to free-standing display boards will be accepted, on this occasion. Exhibits can include paintings, drawings, prints, collages, photographs, needlework.

A maximum of three exhibits will be accepted but, in view of the limited display space available in the Village Hall, the organisers reserve the right to limit the number of exhibits. A charge of 50p per exhibit will be made. You are welcome to sell your work during the Exhibition but we hope that you will want to make a donation to the Disabled Access Fund of at least 10% of the sale value.

If you would like to exhibit your work, or for further information, please contact John Corfield (telephone: 830976).

The Exhibition is being organised on behalf of the Village Hall, by Emily Shirley, Mervyn Gulvin and John Corfield.
