(Widow of the late JOHN PAYN)

MOST respectfully informs the Nobility, Gentry, and Public in general, that she continues the above HOUSE as usual, and humbly imports the Honour and Favour of her Friends, whose Countenance and Protection she hopes to merit by the Assiduity and Attention which she will ever employ to oblige them.

Neat POST-CHAISES with good HORSES.
Also a MACHINE every Day to LONDON.

BETHESDEN, Feb. 11, 1778.

WHEREAS a malicious and false Accusation hath been made, greatly detrimental to me in the Branch I now occupy, as an ALMOUSE-KEEPER or VICTUALLER; and as JOHN WILMOT, of the Parish of Smarden, and JOHN CHILDREN, — WEEKS, — GREEN, — DENNIS, of the Parish of Headcorn, in Company with THOMAS CELLUM, came on the 30th of January last (without a Warrant) and took me on Suspicion of being concerned, with the said THOMAS CELLUM, in stealing of HORSES; I then went voluntarily to a Sitting at Ashford, and was there cleared before four Justices of the Peace, of the Accusation laid against me. All that the said CELLUM had to say against me was for buying a Horse of him, (I not knowing it was a stolen Horse.)

And I farther beg Leave to return my sincere Thanks to the Public, and my Friends in particular, for the many Favours already conferred, and hope for the Continuance of the same, which will be gratefully acknowledged,

By their most obedient humble Servant,
WILLIAM HIGHSTED.

CHARITY - SCHOOL.

FEB. 2, 1778.

THE Minister and Churchwardens of the Parish of Charing, having been pleased this Day to elect me a Master of the School founded and endowed by the late Mrs. LUDWELL; I beg Leave to return them my very grateful Thanks for the Favour conferred upon me; and to assure them, that the utmost Diligence shall be exerted, on my Part, to approve myself as an Educator of Youth in Reading, Writing and Arithmetic, in some Degree worthy of their Choice.

I am to desire also my kind and respectable Friends, of the Parishes of Ashford and Eastry, to accept my best Acknowledgments for the Attestation they were pleased to bear to Mrs. LUDWELL's Trustees of my Character as an honest, sober, and industrious Person.

The School will open on MONDAY the 16th of this Month; when such Children, either to board in my House, or as Day Scholars, to receive Instruction in Reading, Writing, and every Branch of Arithmetic, will have all possible Attention paid to their Morals and Improvement in Learning.

Terms for Boarders, 14l. per Year.

Day-scholars, 6s. per Quarter.

Readers, 3s. per Quarter.

STEPHEN BEAN.

... and the several Pieces or Parcels of Land lying in Grants Lays, within the Parish of Chislet and Hearn, are sold by private Contract.

CANTERBURY, Aug. 12.

The most striking LIKENESSES,
At TWO SHILLINGS and SIXPENCE each,
By Mrs. HARRINGTON,

Who has had the Honour of taking Profiles of the first Personages and most distinguished Nobility in this Kingdom.

THAT no Person may be deprived of their own or their Friends LIKENESS, the Price will be so moderate as 2s. 6d. and nothing required, unless the most perfect LIKENESS is obtained.

Specimens (far superior to any Thing before attempted in this Way) may be seen at Mrs. ROBINSON'S, opposite the FOUNTAIN INN, St. Margaret's, Canterbury.

Time of Sitting, One Minute only.

His Majesty has been pleased to grant his Royal Letters Patent, investing Mrs. HARRINGTON with exclusive Privileges for her much improved and expeditious Method of taking the most striking LIKENESSES in Miniature.

Those Ladies and Gentlemen, who have Friends or Relations at either the Universities of Oxford or Cambridge, may be accommodated with their LIKENESSES, Mrs. HARRINGTON having had the Honour of taking LIKENESSES of nearly the whole of the above Universities, and most of the principal Families in almost every capital Town of England and Scotland. Making a Collection of more than 30,000 approved LIKENESSES, Copies of all which are now in Mrs. HARRINGTON'S Possession; so that almost every Person, in genteel Life, may, upon mentioning the Name and Residence of their Friends, be immediately accommodated with their LIK-NESSES.

The Similitude, Taste, and Elegance, with which these PROFILES are executed, so essentially differ from every Thing of the Kind hitherto attempted, that nothing will be required unless the LIKENESS is perfectly Striking, and the Air and Manner unexceptionably pleasing.

Attendance, as above, from Eleven to Six only.

There are now at Bridge and Bridge hill, eleven horses for the ensuing races; besides which there are stalls taken for three horses belonging to his Royal Highness the Duke of Cumberland, two for Sir John Shelly, and for three horses that are trained by Mr. Rider, of Suxton. Sir John Lade also sends Love a la mode, and Annuity, for the hundred guineas subscription run for on Tuesday next.

To-morrow, between the hours of four and five in the evening, as by advertisement, the horses that are now come will enter for the three fifty pounds plates, of which a farther account will be given in Saturday's paper.

striking LIKENESSES, at 2s. 6d. each, at Mrs. ROBINSON'S, opposite the FOUNTAIN INN, ST. MARGARET'S, CANTERBURY.

Time of Sitting, One Minute.

The curious in Opticks may find some rational and pleasing Amusement in viewing the Royal Patent Delineator, an Instrument by which Mrs. HARRINGTON exhibits a most striking Likeness, in Miniature, of any Person in one Moment. This Apparatus consists of polished Mirrors that immediately reduces and reflects any Object placed before it. These Mirrors are prepared for the Operation by a Chemical Process, and the Effect is afterwards produced as instantaneous as it is astonishing. The Object appears delineated on the Surface with incomparable Force and Spirit, and in the most lively and expressive Colours, so as to form the whole, together, a most brilliant, pleasing, and exact Representation of real Life.

Mrs. HARRINGTON will think herself favoured to shew the different Effects of the DELINEATOR to those Ladies and Gentlemen who have, or intend to honour her by Sitting; but (to prevent unnecessary Trouble) to no others.

Agreeable to several obliging Invitation, attends next Week at Margate

CANTERBURY RACES.

* Run out of the Course.

For the County Subscription yesterday, there were three as fine heats between the above three horses, as ever were seen on the Turf.

This city has been honoured with more company this race week, at the Assemblies and public ordinaries, than any other place yet can boast of, during the whole summer; every county being deprived of their usual company, by the different encampments in the kingdom.

CANTERBURY, October 14.

P R O P O S A L S FOR LIGHTING
F I F T Y L A M P S,
Or any greater Number, in the CITY of CANTERBURY.

At ONE GUINEA each LAMP.

THE Lamps to be lighted nineteen nights in each moon, or 120 nights during the winter season. To commence as soon as a sufficient number of inhabitants shall agree to pay for the above number.

The Lamps to be put up where the lamp-irons are now fixed, and one subscriber to each lamp to be accountable for the sum of One Guinea to the Lamp-master.

The Subscription money to be paid some time in the month of April next.

No less a number than Fifty can be engaged for.

By the above proposal, four or six, or more inhabitants near where the lamp-irons are now fixed, may subscribe on very easy terms.

Those inhabitants who approve of the above proposals, and who will engage for the payment of the Guinea, are desired to give in their names to Mr. BARWICK, Grocer, in High-street, Canterbury, who will undertake to light the city on the above terms.

Any person or persons who approve of putting up a lamp at their own expence, where there are no irons now fixed, may be lighted at the same price.

N. B. As no Lamp-rate will be collected this season, the above mode is intended to answer the purpose.

DOVER. Mrs. Harrington continues this and next week only, to take the most Striking Likenesses at 2s. 6d. each, at Miss Johnson's, on the Quay, Dover. Time of sitting One Minute only. Specimens of the first personages and most distinguished nobility, with many of the principal families of Dover may be seen as above.

On Friday last the Royal Eastern Regiment for Middlesex, commanded by Colonel George Forster Tinsnell, was reviewed at Dover Castle by Lieutenant General Keppel, who expressed a public approbation, and highest satisfaction, at the attention, steadyness, good appearance, and regular discipline of the Regiment, and desired his particular thanks to be given to the Regiment at large on the occasion.

Friday last the Active privateer, of 18 guns, Captain Watson, sailed from Dover pier on a cruise—Going out of the pier, she saluted the spectators with a discharge of her guns, which Southwark, Oct. 12. Hops sold this day, in Bags from about 46s. to 58s. and Pockets from about 54s. to 63s. fine up to 70s. We have had but few Hops come to town this day by land, and the Hoys are not arrived, so cannot tell what they may bring. Fine and good Hops go off very brisk, but ordinary and middling are quite a drug; the Merchants will not buy them, and the market is full of those sorts. We have no accounts from Weyhill Fair as yet.

 Gentlemen, and others, with the very best of all Sorts of Cloaths on the following moderate Terms — As it is it is customary for the advertising, excellent, he often tious, and to explain against the unconscionable Charge of others, and for the others in Return to be made their Goods, which is very disagreeable to Men of Discernment, he shall avoid both, and only declare, that for his own Character he will sell Nothing but the best Cloth, Materials, and Workmanship; and speaks to those Gentlemen, whom he has the Honour to serve, for his Satisfaction and Integrity in the Execution of what he undertakes, and desires any Master to expose him therein.

Prices for middle-sized Men only; each and under that Size, equally in Proportion.
