

T NEALE
1819

PUBLIC
RECORD
OFFICE

The National Archives

(c) crown copyright

To Mrs Drott what she thinks will be useful to her my wife shall I leave to my friend Mrs J. Drott my wate I leave to my dear favorite Dorothea James Drott my diamond brooch to my friend Mrs J. Drott my white Cornelian brooch to Mrs. Gardner my Garnet Dress Ring and bracelet to my old friend Miss Platt my pearl Dress Ring and bracelet to the friend of my early youth Lady Dorothea my pearl ring set with hair to my much esteemed friend Mrs. Forth the and besides to my good Mother she to be my last will being perfectly sure she will do every thing that is right. Do help me God. This 10 day July in the year of Lord 1710. //

20th September 1710.

appeared personally James Drott of St. Catharine Street in the County of Middlesex Gentleman and Dyia Drott wife of the said James Drott and jointly and severally made oath that they respectively know and were well acquainted with Francis Drott late of Old Drury Ford in the County of Middlesex Merchant deceased for several years before and down to the time of his death and that having during such their acquaintance with the said deceased frequently seen her write and subscribe her name to writings published by her respectively before well acquainted with the Character and Character of her handwriting and subscription and having the paper writing left to them and which purports to be and contain the last will and testament of the said deceased and which begins thus "I Francis Drott of Old Drury Ford in the County of Middlesex this my last will and testament" and which ends and is dated thus "This 10th day of July in the year of our Lord 1710" and which is perfectly sure she will do every thing that is right. Do help me God this 10 day July in the year of Lord 1710. //

Proved at London the 5th day of August 1710 before the worshipful John Staubury Esq. of the Middle Temple by the Oath of Francis Drott widow the Mother the sole executrix to whom an adition was granted having been first sworn duly to do.

In the Name of God Amen

Thomas Neale

I Thomas Neale Clerk of the Parish of St. Andrew in the County of Middlesex and Publisher this my last will and testament as follows First I give and bequeath to my eldest son John Neale the sum of seventy pounds which is indebted to me with all the interest that is due thereon at the time of my decease I give to each of the two boxes of the said John Neale one silver watch with the Chain Ring and deal which shall be on them at the time of my decease I give and bequeath to my loving wife Mary Neale all my estate Real or Personal whatsoever and wheresoever with to Mrs Drott what she thinks will be useful to her and she shall leave to my friend Mrs J. Drott my watch I leave to my dear favorite daughter James Drott my diamond brooch to my friend Mrs Jones my white Cornelian neck lace to Mrs Gardner my Carved Brooch and Bracelets to my old friend Miss Platt my pearl necklaces and Bracelets to the friend of my early youth Lady Darrow my pearl ring set with hair to my much esteemed friend Mrs Forreth the and residue to my good Mother she to be my last will being perfectly sure she will do every thing that right do help me God this 10 day July in the year of Lord 1710

25th September 1710

appeared personally James Drott of St. 10 Catherine Street Commercial Road in the County of Middlesex Bachelor and Lydia Drott wife of the said James Drott and jointly and severally made oath that they respectively know and well are acquainted with Francis Drott late of St. Dunstons in the County of Middlesex Merchant deceased for several years before and down to the time of his death and that during the said their acquaintance with the said deceased frequently saw her write and subscribe her name to writings that last thirty respectively but not well acquainted with the Drott and Character of her handwriting and subscription and the contents having seen severally carefully viewed and perused the paper writing here produced which purports to be and contain the last will and testament of the said deceased and to be signed thus "I Francis Drott late of St.
Dunstons in the County of Middlesex deceased this my last will and testament" and which ends and is dated thus "Eternally and resting to my good Mother she to be my last will being perfectly sure she will do every thing that right do help me God this 10 day July in the year of Lord 1710" Etc. lastly jointly and severally made oath that they respectively and in their respective last wills the said last will and testament of the said deceased writing beginning and ending as aforesaid to be all of the own proper handwriting of the said Francis Drott deceased and Lydia Drott wife of the said James Drott and Lydia Drott were duly sworn to the truth of the before going affidavit before me John Faulkner Esq. Justice of the Peace for the County of Middlesex.

Witness my hand at London this 10th day of July 1710

Proved at London the 5th day of July 1710 before the undersigned John Faulkner Esq. Justice of the Peace for the County of Middlesex Drott widow the Mother the said deceased to whom an adition was granted having been first sworn duly to do so

Thomas Neale

(4)

In the Name of God Amen
I Thomas Neale Justice of the Peace for the County of Middlesex in the County of Middlesex and publish this my last will and testament as follows First I give and bequeath to my eldest son John Neale the sum of twenty pounds which is indebted to me with all the interest that is due thereon at the time of my decease I give to each of the two sons of the said John Neale one share to wit with the Claim they and heal which shall be on them at the time of my decease I give and bequeath to my loving wife Mary Neale all my estate Real or Personal whatsover and wheresoever with

with all my Goods and Chattels during his natural life and after his decease to my two Sons James Deale and Thomas Deale to be equally divided between them share and share alike and I do constitute and appoint my said two Sons James Deale and Thomas Deale Executors to this my last will and testament written with my hand this 20th day of July 1605 and to which I have put my hand and seal of Thomas Deale signed sealed published and declared by the said Thomas Deale as and for his last will and testament in the presence of us who at his request and in his presence and in the co-presence of some other have subscribed our names as witnesses James Deale William Deale William Deale // 10 Approved at London the 20th of July 1610 before the worshipful Augustin Deale Justice of Law and surrogate by the Oath of James Deale the said Justice Deale to whom a writ was granted bearing date the first of June 1610 to read // 10

William
 Neal
 (0)

William Deale of Dorchester Street in the parish and town of Dorchester in the County of Dorset being then of his good bodily health and of sound and disposing mind memory and understanding do make and ordain this my last will and testament in manner and form following that is to say I do give to be lawfully authorized at the sole direction of my loving daughter Elizabeth Deale and do desire I have to be ready at a reasonable time to be forwarded and set up in this world my former Deale therefore hereby give and bequeath to him my said son James Deale the sum of five pounds only also give and bequeath to my dear daughter Elizabeth Deale the younger sixty pounds for her own use and also to all that my former Deale made and bequeath to her and to her which she shall please and in which I do so dwell and in which she shall please to be for and in the town and co-parish of Dorchester in the County of Dorset aforesaid I hereby give and bequeath the same with the appurtenances my daughter Elizabeth Deale and to her assigns from my Deale for the term of her natural life the foregoing the said in good repair and to be lawfully insured against all loss or damage by fire during that term and from and after the decease of my said wife my daughter and bequeath my said Deale for the term of her appurtenances and to the use of my said daughter Elizabeth Deale to hold to her my said Elizabeth Deale for her life and after her decease to the heirs of her body lawfully issuing as tenants in common if more than one and she and if but one child of her body then to such one and she and to his or her heirs and assigns for ever but in case of the death of my said daughter without lawful issue of her body living at her decease then I give and devise my said former Deale unto and to the use of my said son James Deale and to his heirs and assigns for ever and as to all my lands tenements and other things which I have funds securities for money debts and other debts which in these former Deales and furniture and all other my personal estate and effects whatsoever and whosoever and of what nature kind or quality soever I give and bequeath the same and every part thereof unto my said wife Elizabeth Deale for the use and behoof of her my said wife and my

To hold to her and wife Elizabeth Deale & her assigns

1610
 1611
 1612