

the water rose through the t flooring

Mr. A. Moores tries to keep the river away from the door of his new shop in Bridge

In socks, Mrs. A. Down, of Bridge, waits for the gumboots Mrs. G. E. Dove borrowed to go shopping

In her borrowed b
... wit

Mrs. Dove does her shopping
'ash—and a smile

Man with the pneumatic drill is escape . . . Background

from
Mrs Dove
Kentish Express
Jan 1961

TERS SWEEP INTO TWO

Goldridge, aged 10, make their reet

Mr. A. Moores tries to keep the river away from the door of his new shop in Bridge

the water rose through the
et flooring

The lounge in Anne's house, Bridge
. 14, and Toby, aged 7,

Man with the pneumatic drill is
escape . . . Background

INTO TWO VILLAGES

er away from the Bridge

The lounge in Anne's house, Bridge, is flooded for the fifth time . . Cherry, aged . 14, and Toby, aged 7, Hunter get on with the salvage work

Man with the pneumatic drill is digging a channel at Bridge to help the water to escape . . . Background is a buoy to mark the way for motorists