

hope that I may be of some use in the final assembling and publication of a local history.

Many thanks again for allowing me to see the material.

Yours sincerely

Joyce Frame.

16. Bridge Down,
 Bridge Canterbury.
 Kent CT4 5AZ.
 22nd May, 1986.

Dear Mr Williamson,

I have read through your files on the locality with much interest, and I am grateful to you for lending them to me; they have answered so many questions that have arisen in my mind.

I will do some more quiet delving on my own account and, when the time is right for you, and other omens are propitious, I

Perhaps the following references maybe useful to have sometime:-

1. Arch. Cant. vol LXXIX p.136-142. The Vanishing Houses of Kent:- Bridge Farm, Bridge. E.W. Parkin.
2. Arch. Cant. vol. LXXVIII. The Iron Age Site on Bridge Hill. M.B. Watson.