

WOMEN'S INSTITUTE'S 21ST BIRTHDAY

The Bridge and Patricxbourne Women's Institute had a great time at their 21st birthday party last week. The birthday cake was made by Miss Stevenson, the almond paste being provided by Mrs. Ford, the icing by Mrs. Wraight and the 21 candles by Miss Friend. Mrs. Money lit the candles and the youngest member, Mrs. F. Down, blew them out, while the oldest member, Mrs. Souten cut the cake. There were all sorts of amusements including a dart won by Miss Friend, tossing the pancake won by Mrs. Booth, bean bags competition with Miss Carroll as musical parcels won by Mrs. Stockwell. A rummage sale arranged by Mrs. Ramsay brought in £10.

ANTIQUe TURRET CLOCK C. 1760 by
Hardeman of Bridge, Kent. 36 inch dial.
Details from KENNETH PHILLIPS, 100
Edith Grove, Chelsea, S.W.10. 01-352 6221.