

Hon. Treasurer, Mrs. Talbot.
On June 8 and 9 the members are exhibiting at the Handicrafts Exhibition, Folkestone, and are also taking part in the E.K.F.W.I. music festival.

The Nursing Association

The Bridge, Patricxbourne, Bekesbourne and Bishopsbourne Nursing Association is a most active and flourishing organisation, and the work carried out in the area is of a most valuable character. The well-organised Welfare Centre shows steady progress, and the Association receives a gratifying measure of support from the residents of the district. The duties of District Nurse have been admirably carried out by Nurse Gilbert for a period of 13 years. Mrs. Spencer Mount is the energetic Hon. Secretary, the Hon. Mrs.
Talbot is Hon. Treasurer, Mrs. Money the President, and Mr. J. B. Wilson, Hon. Auditor. The members of the committee are: Mrs. Anderson, Mrs. E.
Baker, Mrs. S. Collard, Mrs. Knight, Mrs. Lamplugh, Dr. Mercer, Miss Sperling, Mrs. Tattersall, Mrs.
Troughton, Dr. Wilson.

Mothers' Union

Mrs. Money is President and Mrs.
Knight the Hon. Secretary of the Bridge and Patricxbourne Mothers' Union, which has the excellent number of 59 members and associates. The committee includes: Mrs. Richards, the Hon. Mrs. Talbot, Mrs. Spencer Mount, Mrs. Hawkins, Mrs. Miller, and Mrs.
Herbert Mount. The branch attended the notable Diocesan Festival which was held at Canterbury last week, and took part in the procession to the Cathedral and the service and meeting.

New Buffaloes Lodge

It is interesting to hear that very shortly a lodge, to be known as the Nailbourne Lodge of the R.A.O.B., G.L.E., is to be officially opened at the Plough and Harrow. This ceremony, it is expected, will be performed by the Provincial Grand Primo. The prime mover in obtaining the necessary initial membership has been Mr. J. M.
Ballard.

The Bowling Club

The Bridge Bowling Club, which has been in existence just over two years, is in a very flourishing state, its present membership being about 36. The President is Mr. G. K. Anderson, J.P., and the Vice-President, Sir John Prestige. Mr. J. M. Ballard is Chairman, Mr. W. H. Dobson, Hon. Secretary, and Mr. Bert Edwards, Hon. Treasurer.
A new green has been opened this year in a conveniently central and charmingly secluded position behind Mr.
Gilbert's forge, and, thanks to the work put in by the members, is in excellent condition. At present, of course, the majority of the members are novices at the ancient game, but as they grow in skill it is hoped to enter the various competitions. This season a few friendly matches have been arranged. Lady members are cordially invited.

Linton Tennis Club

The Linton Tennis Club, the courts of which are in a central position, is now in its fifth season and forms a delightful social centre. The membership of about 30 includes this season an infusion of new blood which promises to strengthen the match teams.
Matches are played with the Canterbury clubs, but there is the handicap that the club is never able to field its strongest combination, owing to the fact that the members' half-days do not synchronise. The officers are: Chairman, Mr. L. J. Williams; Captain, Mr.
Guy Honney; Hon. Secretary, Mr. H.

are held on the second Wednesday in the month in the Reading Room—the scene of so many of the village's social events—except for two garden meetings in the summer. One of the most pleasant functions is that held annually in the garden of Bridge Place by the kind invitation of Mrs. Penn. The Women's Institute fete (this year to be held on June 22) is always an eagerly-anticipated event of the summer and invariably a financially successful affair, enabling the committee to make donations to the Nursing Association, the children's treat and the fund for the blind. The officers are: President and Chairman, Mrs. Knight; Vice-Presidents, the Hon. Mrs. Talbot and Mrs. Money; Hon. Secretary, Mrs. E. Pope; Hon. Treasurer, Mrs. Richards.

On June 8 and 9 the members are exhibiting at the Handicrafts Exhibition, Folkestone, and are also taking part in the E.K.F.W.I. music festival.
