

A picturesque old building, now undergoing complete restoration, is included in the conservation area that Kent County Council has designed at Bridge. The area takes in the High Street, from one side of the village to the other, and includes streets leading off the main road.

201