

Rescue workers and other rescue workers in Bridge, near Canterbury, yesterday, after a 30-ton lorry had crashed into a row of shops. It took six hours to release the body of the driver, Mr Reginald Christopher, aged 53, of Dagenham. Angela Lewis, aged 15, daughter of village grocer, was flung across her bedroom by the impact.

The A2 trunk road was blocked at Bridge yesterday (Monday) when demonstrators held a sit-down protest to demand the banning of Continental lorries. (Another picture on page 10.)
