

Over 120 feet above the rooftops of Bridge works Mr. L. Thorner, of Folkestone. For the last week he has been retiling and slating the village church steeple.

Church tower work now finished

This week sees the end of the work that for some time has been going on over the heads of Bridge villagers. For the past year the church roof has been renovated and now the finishing touches are being put to the tower.

The 120 feet was reached for the tower and was made by...
