

BRIDGE
CHOIRMISTRESS
WEDS

MR. J. E. MEE AND MISS M. E. STEVENS

Miss Mary E. Stevens, only daughter of the late Mr. J. W. Stevens and of Mrs. L. A. Stevens, of 6 Bourne View, Bridge, was married on Saturday at St. Peter's Church, Bridge, where she has been choirmistress. The bridegroom was Mr. John E. Mee, second son of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Mee, of 15 Grove Road, Hereford.

The couple met in Germany, while the bride was teaching French children, and the bridegroom was in the Army. On January 2 they are sailing for Liverpool, to take teaching posts.

The Rev. G. A. Church, Rector of Hereford, was formerly Vicar of Bridge, officiated at the ceremony.

The bride gave away to Mr. John E. Mee, 15 Grove Road, Hereford, a silver bangle inlaid with South West African stones, and the bridegroom gave to the bride a set of gold cuff links.

Falstaff Hotel, Canterbury, the couple left for a honeymoon in London, the bride wearing a grey suit with red accessories.

The bridegroom's gift to the bride was a silver bangle inlaid with South West African stones, and the reciprocal gift was a set of gold cuff links.

C
T
C an th
L
B
S bu
ev
D
w
S in

Grandson for Sir John

THE birth of a son to Lady Rosemary Russell, wife of Sir Charles Russell, was recently announced. Lady Rosemary is the daughter of Sir John and Lady Prestige, of Bourne Park, Bridge. The couple's wedding at St. Thomas' R.C. Church, Canterbury, was one of the outstanding events of recent years.

The baby will be named Charles Dominic. He is here pictured with his mother in the garden of Sir Charles Russell's London home at Horton Street, W.A.

— 1956

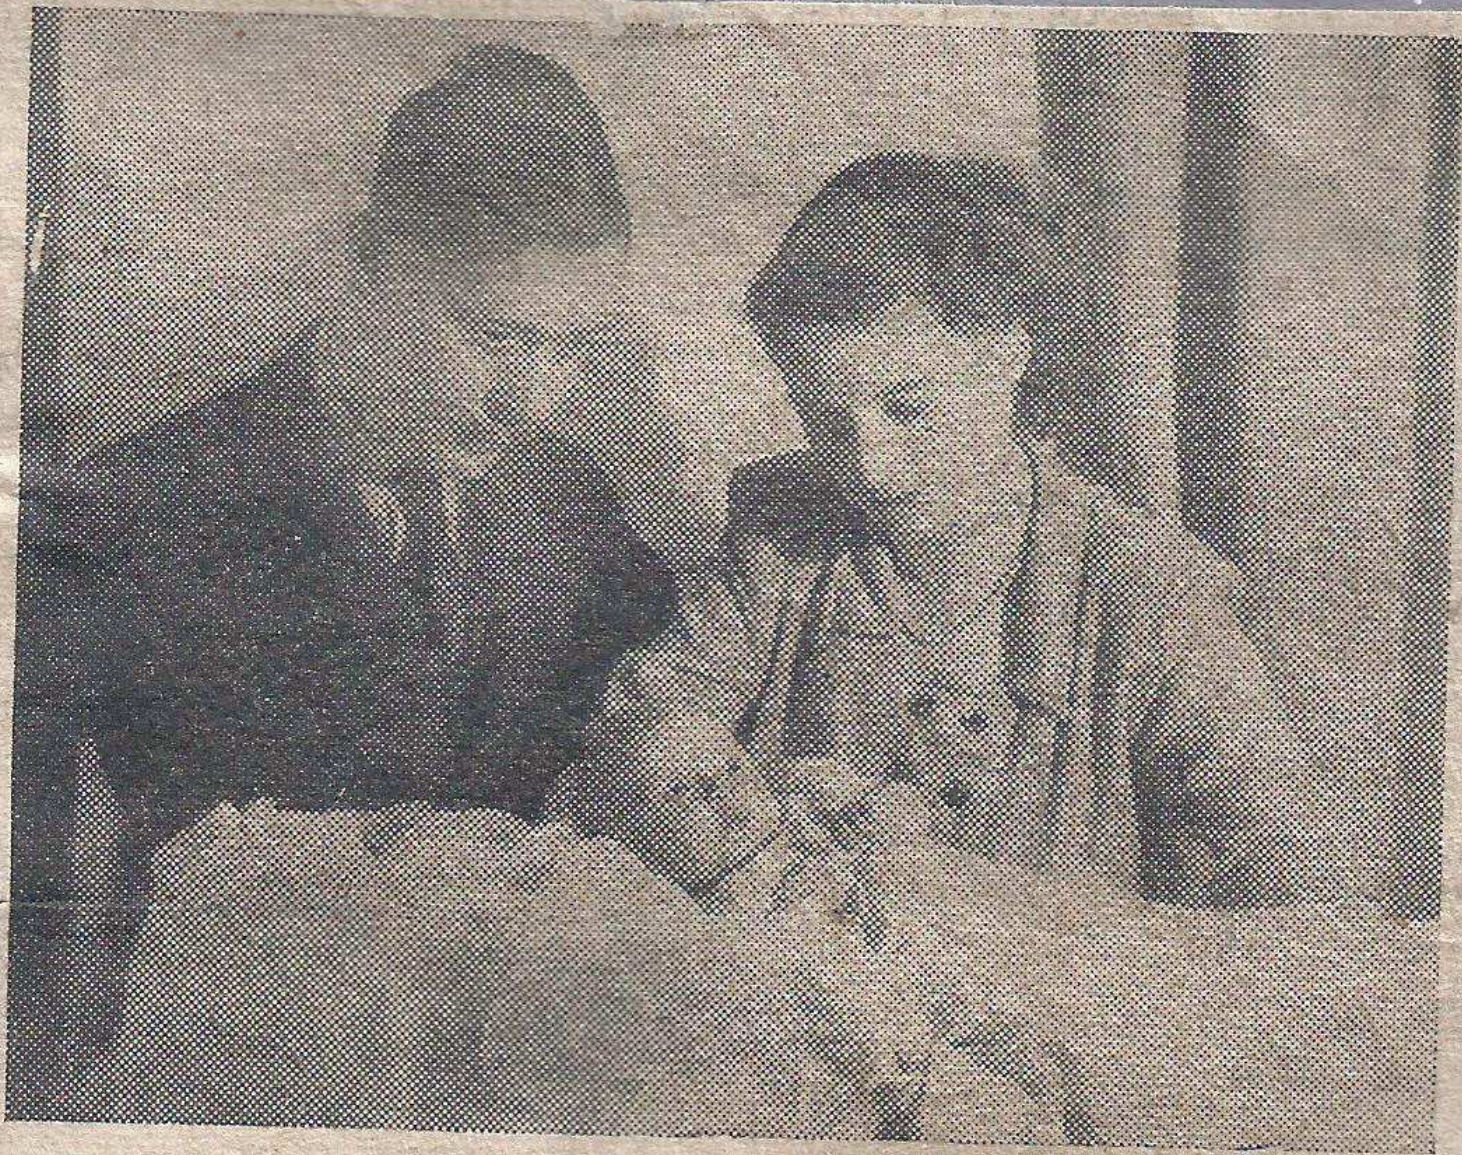

Photo: FISK-MOORE

Capt. and Mrs. John Prestige with their daughter, Sarah Louise, after her christening at St. Mary's Church, Bishopsbourne, on Saturday last by the Rector, the Rev. A. F. Inglis, O.B.E. The godparents were Mr. Ivor O'Brien, Miss Elizabeth Finn and Miss Patricia Rickards, for whom Mrs. Rickards stood proxy. The infant wore an old Italian lace robe with a Point-de-Paris lace veil, surmounted by a Honiton lace veil, the latter being the gift of her great aunt, Miss Prestige. After the ceremony, friends attended a christening party at Hilarity House, Bishopsbourne.

ROMAN SKULL FOUND

A Roman skull with auburn plaited hair has been found on a building site in Dorchester. The remains, which are exceptionally rare, came from an adult burial packed in plaster in a lead coffin.