

March 8, 1968

ary

Mr. STUART ROSE

ber of the Crystal Palace Photographic Club for 21 years and its chairman for the last two years.

A winner of many cups and prizes at club competitions, he says his favourite subjects are elderly people.

About two years ago he won a cup with a photograph he took of his late mother, Mrs. Sarah Rose, when she was 98.

"It was one of the best pictures I have ever taken," said Mr. Rose. "One of the judges found it so alive that he was actually able to read my mother's character from it."

Another business closes down

A three year courtship ended yesterday (Wednesday) appropriately at St. Luke's Church, Norwood High Street, when 86-year-old Frederick Barnes married 73-year-old Miss Ethel Addison. The couple who live in a Norwood old people's home, first met three years ago at a holiday camp at Leysdown, Isle of Sheppey, where Mr. Barnes asked Miss Addison if he could accompany her to church.

Since then both have carried on their correspondence through their attendances at Sunday services in St. Luke's. Mr. Barnes, whose previous wife died three years ago, has two grown-up daughters and a grown-up son by the marriage. Mr. Barnes and his wife, pictured above, hope to move into a brand-new home in Tooting Bec.

Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Barnes

LADD—LISTER

Mr. Donald Edwin Ladd, of Cocksett Avenue, Farnborough, is the son of Mrs. A. Ladd and the late Mr. W. Ladd, married Miss Linda Patricia Lister, daughter of Mrs. F. Lister, of Brighton Road, South Croydon, and the late Mr. M. Lister, on Saturday.

The bride was given away by her uncle, Mr. Arthur Groom.

Bridesmaids were Miss Valerie Corline and Miss Diane Abrahams.

Mr. Michael Moore was best man.

Coss photographic

METCALF—PEACHEY

The wedding took place on Saturday at St. John's Church, Upper Norwood, of Mr. Maurice Arthur Metcalf, son of Mrs. H. E. Metcalf, and the late Mr. Metcalf,

Croydon Press Pictures

~~11 Brook Road, Chessington.~~
The bride is Miss Valerie Lee Peachey, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Peachey, of Ross Road, South Norwood.

The bride was attended by Miss Susan Morgan, Miss Jill Smith, and two bridesmaids, Misses Susan and Susan.

Mr. Gordon Morgan was best man and Mr. ... was ...