Proprietors: Betty & Gordon Richards

Saxon Lodge is a family run Residential Home providing a comfortable and welcoming home for the elderly. It is situated in the quiet and well-appointed village of Bridge, only a few miles from Canterbury city centre. The home has recently been extended and refurbished to a high standard. Saxon Lodge offers spacious accommodation in <sup>both</sup> single <sup>and</sup> double rooms, some with en suite facilities. ~~All rooms have colour television and telephone points.~~

Saxon Lodge is designed over two floors, all the corridors are wide and we have an eight person lift enabling us to provide accommodation to residents with wheelchairs or walking aids. Full toilet facilities for the ambulant and non-ambulant are available on both the ground and first floors.

Local priest nearby
 Appointments can be made for a visit by a chiropodist, dentist or optician to attend if and when required. A hairdresser calls whenever required and we have a separate hairdressing salon for residents use. Own choice of GP is encouraged.
~~Private telephone in most rooms~~
 There is a separate dining room and the modern kitchen provides good home cooking for nutritional and preferred diets.

NO TRAINED
 Residents are cared for by dedicated and friendly staff 24 hours a day. The proprietors aim to provide a high standard of care and support without encroaching on the individual's right to privacy or choice. All residents have individual care plans.

Visitors are welcomed at any time and light refreshments are provided.
