Bridge Hill House.

Preliminary Advertisement.—The Bridge-hill-house Estate, a beautiful Freehold Property, situate close to the picturesque village of Bridge, about three miles from the city of Canterbury, on the high road to Dover, comprising a capital residence, surrounded by delightful pleasure grounds and lawns, with undulating park-like meadow land, comprising altogether nearly 30 acres, with possession.

MESSRS. NORTON, TRIST, WATNEY, and Co. have received in instructions from the Executors of the late Mrs. Gregory to offer for SALE, at the Mart, in Tokenhouse-yard, near the Bank of England, early in July, the beautiful FREEHOLD PROPERTY, distinguished as Bridge-hill-house, situate fronting Barham-downs, close to the pretty village of Bridge, about three miles from the fine old city of Canterbury, on the high road to Dover, from which it is 12 miles, and only a mile and a half from the Bekesbourne Station on the London, Chatham, and Dover Railway, and within two hours by Railway of London. It comprises a very commodious residence, judiciously placed at an agreeable distance from the road, from which it is approached by a carriage drive, and commanding extensive and lovely views of the surrounding picturesque country, including a fine view of the Cathedral and Bridge Church. It is entered through a spacious conservatory with fernery at side, and contains 10 principal and secondary bed rooms, two dressing rooms, sitting room, water-closet, and a suite of rooms in wing, consisting of a large bed room, small room, dressing room, sitting room and water-closet on the ground floor, entrance hall, excellent dining room, drawing room, communicating with a library, and opening by folding casements with a verandah; conveniently arranged domestic offices, detached servants'-hall, laundry, washhouse, two men's rooms, stabling for four horses, coach-house, brewhouse, granary, and other useful outbuildings, large walled kitchen gardens, two greenhouses, and vinery; beautiful pleasure grounds, lawns, and ornamental flower beds, intersected and surrounded by long rustic walks through shrubberies, leading to two compact cottages, together with pleasingly undulating and richly timbered park-like meadow land, the whole comprising about 30 acres. This desirable property is situate in a very favourite neighbourhood, surrounded by the estates of noblemen and gentlemen, including Bifrons, the property of the Marquis of Coningham; Bourne-park, belonging to M. Bell, Esq.; and the residences of the Rev. Hughes Hallett and Cap. Winter, and in addition to its residential attractions; portions of the meadows, having a frontage of nearly 1700 feet to the high road from Canterbury to Dover, might be advantageously appropriated to building purposes, without any interference whatever with the residential enjoyment of the remainder. May be viewed by cards only. Particulars with plans will be ready shortly, and may be had at the principal hotels, Canterbury and Dover; and of Messrs. Furley and Calloway, solicitors, Canterbury; at the Mart; and of Messrs. Norton, Trist, Watney, and Co., 62, Old Broad-street, Royal Exchange, E.C.
