Dear Madam,

We beg to inform you that we have entered into an agreement with Messrs. Price & Reynolds for the acquisition by us of the business known as Henry G. Price, The Stores, Bridge.

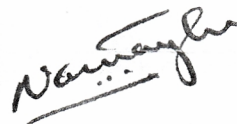

We are writing to assure you that, having the highest regard for the way in which the business has been conducted over the past years, we shall endeavour to continue the trade in a similar manner.

Mr. Reynolds has undertaken to stay with us for a few weeks, to assist us in making a smooth changeover, and we hope that most of the existing staff will continue their services in our employ.

Mr. Bernard Price, a nephew of one of the present partners, will manage the business on our behalf.

We trust we may be allowed to continue to be of service to you.

Yours faithfully,

FAMILY GROCER

September, 195<sup>8</sup>.

Dear Madam,

We beg to inform you that we have agreed to sell our business, trading under the name of Henry G. Price, The Stores, Bridge, to VYE & SON Limited, and as from Monday, the 29th of September, all accounts owing for goods will be payable to them, although cheques made payable to Henry G. Price will be accepted.

The business for the time being will continue to trade under the name of Henry G. Price, and we are assured that it is our successors' genuine desire to continue the business in a manner similar to the way in which it has always been conducted.

We have every confidence in recommending our successors for the continuance of your valued custom, with the knowledge that they are a reputable company who have traded in Kent in high-class groceries and provisions for a very great number of years.

We wish to express to you our appreciation of the confidence and goodwill extended to us in the past.

Yours faithfully

Henry G. Price L. J. Reynolds
